What makes a home? It is not a costly house and stylish furniture, but sunny looks, kind words, and loving acts that make a pleasant and happy home.

A New Year's Wish.

May its light
 Be the sunlight of God's love.
 Its nights
 His sheltering wings above.
 Its storms
 Reveal the wonders of his grace.
 Its calms
 Reflect the beauty of his face.
 Its winds
 Breathe whispers of his care.
 Its showers
 Brings blessings rich and rare.
 May its cares
 Bind closer to his heart.
 Its joys
 Be of heavenly joys a part.
 May its hours
 Be full of better things to come.
 Its last day
 Find us one year "nearer home!"

—Elizabeth Post.

It is said that Diogenes, on being asked the biting of which beast is the most dangerous, answered, "If you mean wild beasts, it is the slanderer; if tame ones, the flatterer."

Beginnings.

There are many and various beginnings. The beginning of the year, the beginning of the Bible, the beginning of the world, the beginning of man, and the beginning of life both natural and spiritual. Let every beginning be in the name and in the fear of the Lord, endeavoring in every word and work to promote his glory and to secure the highest interest of mankind. Thus, dear reader, begin the year 1888.

God has never ceased to be the true aim of all human aspirations.

The Christian Sabbath, or Lord's Day, is not merely a day of rest. It is a sacred day, and as such it should always be observed, for if the Sabbath is not observed as a sacred day, there is danger of its being lost as a day of rest.

The night was winter in his roughest mood,
 The morning sharp and clear. But now at noon
 Upon the southern side of the slant hills.
 And where the woods fence off the northern blast,
 The season smiles, resigning all its rage,
 And has the warmth of May. The vault is blue
 Without a cloud, and white without a speck
 The dazzling splendor of the scene below.
 Again the harmony comes o'er the vale;
 And through the trees I view the embattled tower,
 Whence all the music. I again perceive
 The soothing influence of the wafted strains,
 And settled in soft musings as I tread
 The walk, still verdant, under oaks and elms,
 Whose outspread branches overarch the glade.

No noise is here, or none that hinders thought,
 The red breast warbles still, but is content
 With slender notes, and more than half suppressed;
 Pleased with his solitude, and flitting light
 From spray to spray, where'er he rests he shakes
 From many a twig the pendant drops of ice,
 That tinkle in the withered leaves below.
 Stillness accompanied with sounds so soft,
 Charms more than silence. Meditation here
 May think down hours to moments. Here the heart
 May give a useful lesson to the head,
 And learning wiser grow without his books.

Golden Rules for Christian Families —Drawn from a Swarm of Scripture Bees.

Be ye followers of God, as dear children. Eph. 5: 1.
 Be not conformed to this world. Rom. 12: 2.
 Be kindly affectioned one to another. Rom. 12: 10.
 Be contented with such things as ye have. Heb. 13: 5.
 Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only. James 1: 22.
 Be ye of one mind, and live in peace. II. Cor. 13: 11.
 Be clothed with humility. I. Pet. 5: 5.
 Be sober and watch unto prayer. I. Pet. 4: 7.
 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice. Ps. 32: 11.
 Be ready for the Son of man cometh. Luke 12: 40.

An Aggressive Spirit.

No church can truly prosper that is not fired with the aggressive spirit of Christ, and that does not aim to make advances upon the world both at home and abroad. This is the main object of the church's existence, and when it ceases to keep this in view it will become stagnant, breed internal strife and external reproach. Let there be a determination on the part of every member to be aggressive in some proper way; for only in such a course, will be found safety, success and the approval of the Master.

The teacher who is attempting to teach without inspiring his pupils with a desire to learn, is hammering in cold iron.

Conjectures of the Weather.

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd warm; 4th showers; 5th, 6th windy; 7th calm; 8th rain; 9th, 10th variable; 11th, 12th, 13th cloudy; 14th, 15th rain; 16th cold; 17th snow; 18th moderate; 19th rain; 20th, 21st, 22nd windy, cold; 23rd rain; 24th, 25th cold, 26th sleet; 27th, 28th rain; 29th, 30th, 31st cold, stormy.

An earnest Christian is always peculiar and half incomprehensible to the world. He has something in and about him they have not, and which they do not know how to reckon in their calculations.

THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

Jesus Crucified.

Lamb of God, who came from heaven,
 Came to shed thy precious blood,
 That our sins might be forgiven,
 And our souls brought near to God:
 Lamb of God, who died for me,
 Help my soul to trust in thee.

Thou art pure and undefiled,
 Meek and lowly, free from sin;
 I am but a sinful child,
 Angry tempers dwell within:
 Lamb of God, who died for me,
 Teach me how to follow thee.

I would follow thee alone,
 And thou bidd'st me, day by day,
 Strive to do as thou hast done,
 And my Father's law obey:
 Lamb of God, who died for me,
 Teach me how to follow thee.

Thou art reigning now above,
 There where sins and sorrows cease;
 Guide me by thy watchful love,
 Till I reach that land of peace:
 Lamb of God, who died for me,
 Let me rest in heaven with thee.

(1851.)

—Mrs. Mary Bourdillon.

Holy Week.

The week preceeding the Easter Festival is commonly called Holy Week or Passion Week. When we consider all the sacred and solemn scenes that were crowded into this week, we cannot help but regard it holy. It was a week of agony and death for humanity. It was a week of suffering, all that sinners might be redeemed. It was the sacrifice of holy blood as it streamed from the hands and feet and side of the Savior that makes it holy to the devout Christian.

The Resurrection.

After the dark scenes of Holy Week came the joy of the Easter Festival. What a changed scene! From death to life; from the tomb to the evening assembly; from the power of death and the grave, to victory and freedom. The resurrection of Christ declared his divinity and gave power to his truth and triumph to his cause. Read the fifteenth chapter of I. Corinthians.

Keep Accounts.

It is a good plan to keep a strict account of all the moneys received and paid out by a congregation during each year for congregational and benevolent purposes. Such a record is important and useful for the present, and of historical interest and value for the future. It will enable the proper officers to make a yearly statement of the finances to the congregation.

Conceit is to nature what paint is to beauty; it is not only needless, but impairs what it would improve.

Some church officers, instead of holding up the hands of the minister, as did Aaron and Hur to Moses (Ex. 17: 12), stand off and throw stones at him! Such are truly bad exemplifications of Aaron and Hur.

How Spring Came.

A south wind blew and set the snow a-melting,
And made the little brooks begin to run;
From changeful skies soft April rains came pelting,
And wore away the white drifts every one,
And then out shone the golden April sun.

The little brooks ran fast, with liquid laughter,
Through field and forest spreading the glad word;
Snow-drops woke first; hepatica came after;
It was not long before the violets heard;
And then—out sang a thankful little bird.

So sweet it set the woodland's heart a throbbing,
And all the meadows smiled to blossoming;
The brook's laugh softened to a happy sobbing,
And every little longing, living thing
Crept forth to round the miracle of spring.

—Mrs. Jas. A. Field, in Harper's Young People.

Duties of Church Members.

The members of the Reformed Church should aim to understand every duty they owe to God. In proportion that they know and discharge these duties will they enjoy their religion. Our people do not remember their obligations enough, and hence many may fall away from the faith. Consider very carefully the following catalogue of duties of members of the Reformed Church:

1. Their duty and relation to the pastor.
2. Their duty and relation to the church in general.
3. Their duty to the congregation of which they are members.
4. Their duty to the consistory.
5. Their duty to the classis.
6. Their duty to the synod.
7. Their duty to works of benevolence.
8. Their duty to educational institutions.
9. Their duty to the publications of the church.
10. Their duty to the Sunday-school.
11. Their duty to home training.
12. Their duty to society.
13. Their duty as citizens.

Those who pray are necessary to those who never pray.—Victor Hugo.

Members in removing from one place or locality to another, often remain away from the church. Such a course is manifestly wrong. When you remove to a new home, seek and find your church at once, instead of waiting till the church finds you.

Flower-Time.

How beautiful the spring doth seem!
The air is soft and mild;
The grass comes creeping up the hills,
And o'er the woodland wild.

The trees put forth their pretty buds,
The daffodil appears;
The crocus raiseth her pretty head
Amid the falling tears.

The bluebell, with its soft green leaves,
Looks out upon the sky;
The violet, in its shady nook,
Opens its soft blue eye.

The daisy and the buttercup
Are blooming everywhere—
A thousand dainty woodland flowers
With fragrance fill the air.

The merry, bright-eyed children dance
Beneath the shady trees,
As happy as the little birds,
And busy as the bees.

The Catechetical Class.

In the Reformed Church we have a grand old symbol of faith viz: "The Heidelberg Catechism." In the Reformation period of the church the pastor gathered the children together on Sabbath afternoon to instruct them in the doctrines of the church. This was the catechetical class or school. It was a school which proved of immense value to the church as thus the children were educated in religious duties. They need this same kind of discipline to-day as then and too much time cannot be given to the catechetical class. Parents should see that the children go and take a proper interest in it.

The Prayer Service.

Entirely too many church members are strangers to the prayer service. They feel good over the fact that their church has a good prayer service, but they are never there to make it so or to help it. Prayer meetings should be full of inspiration to every church member. It should be supported and encouraged by your presence, help and prayers.

Our Foreign Work.

The Foreign Missionary Work of our church is truly wonderful. In one or two years a grand field has been developed and all our forces are now being concentrated at one place. Sendai is the center of operations, and the whole of the northern province is committed to our church. The Girls' School at Sendai is already on a high way to success, and everything promises a great harvest for our church in Japan.

Politeness is the distinctive attribute of the gentleman; rudeness of the boor.

Do you, as members and families of the Reformed Church, take the church paper and the church books as they are published? This is a wise plan, especially on the part of parents. Their children will be taught and molded by such literature. Do you do so?

The New and the Old.

NEW are the leaves on the oaken spray,
New the blades of the silky grass;
Flowers, that were but yesterday,
Peep from the ground where'er I pass.

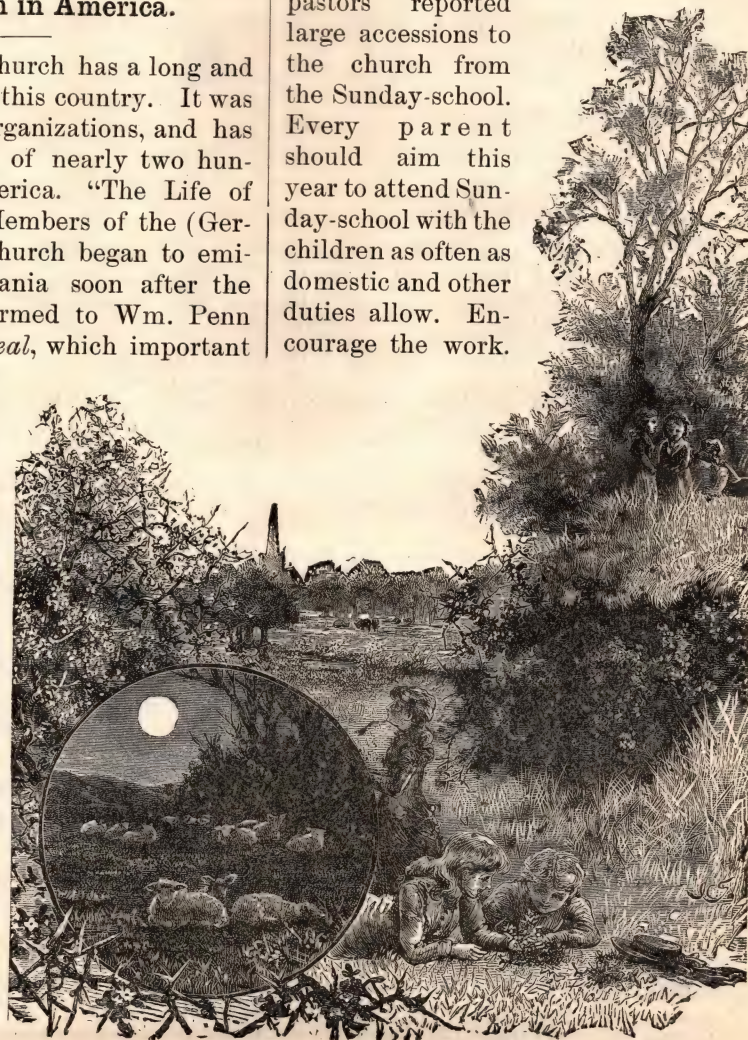

These gay idlers, the butterflies,
Broke, to-day, from their winter shroud;
These soft airs, that winnow the skies,
Blow, just born, from the soft, white cloud.

Our Church in America.

The Reformed Church has a long and eventful history in this country. It was among the first organizations, and has therefore a history of nearly two hundred years in America. "The Life of Schlatter" says, "Members of the (German) Reformed Church began to emigrate to Pennsylvania soon after the province was confirmed to Wm. Penn under the Great Seal, which important event took place on the 4th of March, 1681. As early as 1725 these were well organized churches with pastors, so that Schlatter's mission to America was rather to organize the already existing congregations, to unite them more closely with one another, and with the mother church in the fatherland. This indicates that the Reformed Church has no mean history to look back to.

The Sunday-School.

Our church members should be more deeply concerned about the Sunday-school. This is an important church activity. It is the best means of building up the church. From the Sunday-school thousands of children grow up to become and remain members of the church. During the past year many pastors reported large accessions to the church from the Sunday-school. Every parent should aim this year to attend Sunday-school with the children as often as domestic and other duties allow. Encourage the work.

Study the character of Jesus and his life and spirit for your ideal of what you ought to be. Then pray, and prune, and build, and toil, and amend, ever and always, all to be like him. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.

The Church's Great Want.

The church of the present day, while it has much that is good and commendable, lacks greatly in spiritual power. This indeed is her great lack. The Christianity of to-day is somewhat typical of that of the disciples before Pentecost, being in the temple praising God, and intellectually busy in regard to times and seasons, and the adjustment of things and relations, rather than the disciples after Pentecost going forth in the power of the Spirit, bearing witness to Christ, rebuking evil, enduring sufferings, directing souls in the way of life, and winning victories for Jesus. O for true spiritual power in the church!

The Seed and the Sowers.

Ever so little the seed may be,
Ever so little the hand;
But when it is sown, it must grow, you see,
And develop its nature—weed, flower, or tree;
The sunshine, the air, and the dew are free
At its command.

If the seed be good, we rejoice in hope
Of the harvest it will yield;
We wait and watch for its springing up,
Admire its growth, and count on the crop
That will come from the little seeds we drop.
In the great field.

But if we heedlessly scatter wide
Seeds we may happen to find,
We care not for culture, or what may betide.
We sow here and there, on the highway side;
Whether they've lived, or whether they've died,
— We never mind.

Yet every sower must one day reap
Fruit from the seed he has sown;
How carefully then it becomes us to keep
A watchful eye on the seed, and seek
To sow what is good, that we may not weep
To receive our own!

Fruitless and Fruitful.

There are two kinds of Christians—the fruitless and the fruitful. The former is like a wooden or iron post set in the ground, having neither root, life, growth, nor fruitage; the latter is like a tree planted in good soil along the river side, with rootlets pushing out in every direction, taking up peculiar properties of soil, bearing them away into the trunk, while buds broaden into leaves and blossoms, and culminate in rich and luscious fruit, to extend blessings to all around. Dear reader, to which kind do you belong?

What are the best gifts? The best gift to your enemy is forgiveness; to your opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.

Have You Ever Thought?

DID you ever well consider,
 As you journeyed on life's way,
 Of the vast results dependent
 On the things you do and say?
 Have you ever learned the magic
 Treasured in one little word,
 Fitly spoken, wisely chosen,
 How it into being stirred?

And a soul almost desponding,
 New, fresh inspiration caught,
 Grasped anew life's heavy burden,
 By your bright example taught?
 How a cold and icy nature,
 Like a northern wintry blast,
 Brings a blight where might be blossom;
 Heaven's own blue is overcast?

Possibilities of greatness
 May be crushed by ruthless hand?
 Every aspiration withered,
 Ere it ventures to expand?
 And the grandeur of a life-time
 May be smothered in its bloom,
 For the lack of proper culture
 And a genial, sunny home?

Then, don't call these trifling matters,
 These small, every-day affairs;
 Words will eat as doth a canker,
 Life, at least, has many cares;
 All our actions, words, and manners,
 With great results are rife,
 For in each a soul is hindered
 Or advanced in higher life.

Last Quar. 28th at 2 53 morn; wind.

Church members could all be more useful if they would frequently consult their pastor and seek his counsel in the performance of duties. Never grow weary in well doing, but continue steadfast in every word and work.

Children's Day.

This has become one of the fixed days of the church. It first commenced with the Ohio Synod, and was afterward introduced into the other synods. At the last General Synod at Akron, Ohio, the Children's Day was established for the whole church. The following is the resolution of General Synod: "That the second Sunday in June and the second Sunday in September be appointed Children's Days, and that our pastors and congregations be requested, through their respective classes, to observe one or the other of these days, according to their preference."

September.

The golden rod is yellow;
The corn is turning brown;
The trees in apple orchards
With fruit are bending down.

The gentian's bluest fringes
Are curling in the sun;
In dusty pods the milkweed
Its hidden silk has spun.

The sedges flaunt their harvest
In every meadow nook
And asters by the brook-side
Make asters in the brook.

From dewy lanes at morning
The grape's sweet odors rise;
At noon the roads all flutter
With yellow butterflies.

By all these lovely tokens
September days are here,
With summer's best of weather,
And autumn's best of cheer.

—Scribner.

Moral Courage.

Courage is the ability, even amid danger and difficulty, to stand up for and to carry into practice whatever we believe to be right. It is a grace that is greatly needed in the church, for she is called to withstand the ways and actions of this evil world. There are many who are faint-hearted, or half-hearted, scarcely knowing what to do. "Be of good courage, and God will strengthen your heart."

Covetousness.

Covetousness, which is an inordinate desire to obtain something not in our possession, or to retain that which we possess, is regarded a great evil and often condemned in the Scriptures. Ahab is an example of a covetous man, and Achan of the fearful results of covetousness.

The pastor of a church has many burdens to bear of which his members know nothing. Hence, he should be charitably dealt with and have many willing hands to support him in his work. Respect him for the work he is doing.

Nutting-Time.

H when from the trees
 The autumn breeze
 Brings down a rainbow shower,
 And the ruthless frost
 Each leaf has crossed
 And blighted every flower;
 When the song-birds gay
 Have flown away,
 And the crow and jay are calling,
 Then nimble and brisk
 The squirrels frisk
 To the sound of ripe nuts falling.
 Though brown and sere,
 'Tis the time of year
 The children greet with pleasure,
 And their shouts resound
 To the woods around
 As they find some woodland treasure.
 Then I pity the boys,
 With their frolic and noise,
 That live far away in the cities,
 And the fun-loving girls,
 With their laughter and curls—
 The Annies, the Marys, and Kitties.
 I wish that they all
 Could come at my call
 To take an October-day ramble,
 And make the woods ring
 As they laugh and sing,
 Or romp through the bushes and bramble.
 Then at even, with sacks
 Of ripe nuts on their backs,
 I could speed them each back to their cities.
 Oh! it would gladden my heart
 Such joy to impart
 To the city-bred Johnnies and Kitties!

Prayer for Literary Institutions.

The last General Synod passed the following action bearing on prayer for colleges and literary institutions: "Resolved, that the pastors and members of our church be earnestly requested to remember in their public and private prayers all literary and theological institutions, but especially those of our own communion, imploring the Holy Spirit so to influence their teachers and students, as to promote true knowledge and the cause of Christ in general."

General Synod on Intemperance.

The church at large should know what specific action General Synod took on the subject of intemperance. We give it that it may strengthen the temperance sentiment among our people. "Resolved, that we view with profound regret and sorrow the great evil of intemperance, and especially its sad and deadly fruits, crime, poverty and temporal and eternal death, and that we here and now before God and the nation, record our protest against it, and earnestly call upon our synods, classes, and churches to unite with us in zealous and persistent Christian efforts, looking towards its speedy extermination."

"Here, now," said a mother to her little son, "take this good medicine, its sweet as sugar." "Mamma, I love little brother," he replied, "give it to him."

The members of a church should aim to improve themselves morally, intellectually, and spiritually. To do this they should read the literature of the church as well as other great helps to the attainment of a higher life in Christ.

November.

The snow and sleet
On the windows beat,
And the winds of the icy breath
Whistle and shriek
Through the branches bleak,
Like fiends in the jaws of death.

The shutters moan,
And shiver and groan,
As they wrestle the icy gale,
And the fire goes through
The shuddering flue
With a weird and mournful wail
God pity the poor,
Who in garrets obscure
And hovels of mold and blight,
Hide a shivering form
From this pitiless storm—
God pity the poor to-night!

Do your duty, that is best;
Leave unto the Lord the rest.

Through the Family.

When all the branches of the Aryan family of the human race are assembled, we may expect that America will have produced a grander type of humanity and a grander civilization than the world has ever seen. But how shall we keep alive those principles of religion and morality which are vital to our national existence and prosperity? Through the family. Here is the hope of our nation, for the family has been the stronghold of our liberty in the past, and is fundamental to our stability in the future. The family is the beginning of all authority and government. Civilization takes its tone from the prevailing family life, and the welfare of this nation depends upon the family, as we are a self-governing people, and home is the school in which self-government must first be taught and learned.

The Young Lady.

What is the highest right and privilege of a young lady? It is to show to the world the supreme beauty and nobility of a Christian womanhood. This right enobles and includes in a great measure all others, and your highest right is also your highest privilege. Feel deeply impressed that to you, young women, more than to any other class, is committed the future of the kingdom of God. Our churches are made up of women in proportion of about three to one. Many of these are young women, and each one has not only her own influence to exert, but largely decides what the life of some father, brother, son, or friend, shall be; whether it shall be a godly, or a godless life!

What Does Bric-a-Brac Mean?

Bric-a-brac is a construction of the French de bric et de brac, "by hook or by crook," "on this side and that." It is applied to miscellaneous collections of odd and rare articles which are of real value.

December, with all its wintry charms, is again upon us. How everything around us seems to speak forth the angelic song, "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, and good will toward men." May this be our Christmas wish.

Christmas Carol.

Happy bells of Christmas-tide
 Sound their gladness far and wide,
 Happy children hear once more
 The sweet story o'er and o'er:
 How the harps of heaven rang,
 How the holy angels sang,
 While around a wondrous light

Silently it guided them
 To the Babe of Bethlehem,
 And the three wise kings of old,
 Laid the precious gifts of gold,
 Gifts of incense rare and sweet,
 At the infant Savior's feet.

This the story sweet and old;
 And the glory it foretold
 Shines with radiance more bright

Made the midnight heavens bright,
 And the kneeling shepherds heard
 First on earth the blessed word
 Which to-day we sing again:
 "Peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Strange the story, sweet and old,
 That at Christmas-tide is told:
 Bright there beamed a new-born star,
 Fell its radiance afar;
 Wise men watching for the light
 Saw it shining through the night;

Than on that first Christmas night.
 What shall we who know the way
 Bring before our King to-day?
 Gift of love as incense sweet.
 We will offer at his feet,
 Gift of kindly word and deed
 To his little ones in need.
 Thus while bells of gladness ring,
 Shall the happy children sing,
 Sing the angels' song again,
 "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Read Church History.

Church members should more generally and studiously read church history. In this way they would become better informed of the struggle, trials and victory of the early Christian church; the great need of a Reformation of the sixteenth century; the sufferings of those who died a martyr death in the triumphs of faith; the wonderful revolution wrought by the power of Christianity in its effects on the civil, social, educational and religious of church and state; and the final victory of truth over error and sin. Such reading and study would greatly help men and women to appreciate their Christian privileges, and stimulate them to consecrate their lives and powers more fully to the service of the Lord.

Be not Hasty.

Bear in mind that "haste makes waste," and haste, as opposed to calm consideration, is sin. Take time to think, to inquire and to counsel. Impatience is a ruling evil, and an evidence of self-will. Saul's impatience cost him his kingdom. David's haste was the occasion of gross injustice. Jehoshaphat's precipitancy met with a sharp rebuke. So rash experiments, resulting from haste, often threaten serious evil in the state or civil government. The same spirit rends the church with schism and dissension. In common life how much sin has been the fruit of a few rash words and hasty lines! And in how many instances does haste or rashness plunge us into sin, if not into ruin. Hence pause and think. Practice self-discipline and be considerate. Aim thus to secure self-control, as well as Christian consistency and stability.

Newspapers in the United States.

The first newspaper in America was issued in Boston in 1690, called "Public Occurrences." The Boston "News Letter" was founded in 1704, and continued until 1775. A journal was published at Philadelphia in 1719, and at New York in 1725. For the next fifty years the number increased slowly. When the war with England commenced in 1775, there were but 39 journals of all kinds published in the United States. From that time the number of newspapers increased to 150 in 1800, 366 in 1810, 861 in 1828, 1,403 in 1840, 2,526 in 1850, 4,051 in 1860, 5,871 in 1870, 11,314 in 1880, and 14,160 in 1886. The number of dailies published in 1886 was 1,216, of weeklies 10,685 and of monthlies 1,603. The principal development of newspapers has been in the cities of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Baltimore and New Orleans.

The gross value of the products in 1880 was $89,009,074, and nearly one-half of the income came from advertising. The consumption of paper in that year was 189,145,048 pounds, and the number of copies printed was 2,067,848,209, and distributed through a large extent of territory.

The press, in its social, political and religious aspects, has become a great power, and is giving tone and character to thought, life, government and institutions. And, if all its employed talent and efforts were always and in every instance properly devoted and directed, what a vast amount of good might be accomplished in securing the betterment of the world and the elevation of the race!

Here and There.

Do good to the heathens who live in Japan,
Do good to the dwellers in wide Hindostan;
Do good in the Isles of the sea, if you can—
Do good to them all, on each foreign shore,
But don't forget some who are close to your door.

FOR THE YEAR 1888.

[NOTE.—In order to render this register as valuable as possible, we give not only the name and post-office address, but also the year of ordination and the place of theological preparation. E stands for Eastern Theological Seminary, formerly Mercersburg, now Lancaster; H for Heidelberg Seminary; MH for Mission House; U for Ursinus College; MER for Mercersburg College; Y for York and Carlisle. We have aimed to make it as correct as possible. Those officiating in the German language, or in both German and English, are marked with an O.]

STOP THAT COUGH! HOW?

Not with deleterious mixtures of Opium, etc., but with a remedy that is absolutely safe and reliable, such as BOSTON COUGH BALM which is NOT A NOSTRUM, but is the favorite prescription of an eminent Physician of Boston, Mass., who effected many wonderful cures with it in very obstinate Coughs, Bronchitis, etc.

Seven Good Reasons why you Should use B. C. B.

- 1st. Because it is a scientific combination of eight of the best ingredients known for the cure of Pulmonary Diseases.
- 2d. Because it has and is now curing Coughs and Bronchial Affections which were pronounced incurable.
- 3d. Because it will cure a Cough, not by drying it up, but by loosening it, assisting the lungs and throat to expel offending matter, leaving the lungs healthy, and the air passages clear.
- 4th. Because it is pleasant to take.
- 5th. Because it is absolutely safe. A double dose will not hurt even a child.
- 6th. Because there is no bad effect from opium and it does not constipate.
- 7th. Because we sell it on a positive guarantee, if no benefit is derived from it after a fair trial, the money will be refunded.

Put up in good sized Bottles at 25 and 50 cents each, and sold every where.

PREPARED ONLY BY THE
ROYAL REMEDY CO., 21 E. Second Street, Dayton, Ohio.

LOOK HERE!

The publishers of the Reformed Church Almanac will not admit to its pages an advertisement of an article which has no merit.

For several years past we have advertised in this publication our BOSTON COUGH BALM, which has earned for itself, at home and abroad, the reputation of being the Best and Safest.

Now we have another, a veritable household treasure. It is TRAPPER'S MAGNETIC RELIEF, and we wish to say in all truth and candor, to our numerous friends, that Trapper's Magnetic Relief, positively cures the worst cases of Inflamed and Ulcerated Sore Throat and Diphtheria, and we are ready to prove our assertion by numerous remarkable cures effected here in the city of Dayton and elsewhere. It is also an invaluable remedy for Sick and Nervous headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Internal Pains, cramps, &c. It should be in every house to meet emergencies by day or night. Price, only 25 cts. per bottle. Five bottles for $1.00, or for $2.25 we will deliver 12 bottles to any point in the Eastern or Middle States, free of Express charges.
